

Privacy Policy

Our commitment to protecting your privacy and data

Definitions:

8zero Creative Limited are committed to protecting your privacy and data. This Privacy Policy applies to our Website (<https://eightzero.co.uk>), Website/Blog Mailing Subscription List, Code Development, Data Handling/Storage, and any 3rd Party Development.

This Privacy Policy governs our Data Collection, Processing and Usage Practices. It also describes your choices regarding use, Access and Correction of Personal Information.

If you do not agree with the data practices described in this Privacy Policy, you should not use the Websites or any of the services which we provide.

1. Contacting Us

If you have any questions regarding this Privacy Policy, please contact us by email at info@eightzero.co.uk. You can also contact us via our Contact Page on our Website.

2. Protecting Personal Information

We recommend that you do not give out/disclose any login details (usernames or password) to anyone. Always remember to logout of accounts whenever possible.

Users are assigned unique passwords to any individual who has access to Information or Systems. Password sharing or the use of generic credentials is strictly forbidden. Passwords are updated on a regular basis and credentials prohibited from being saved on any personal storage devices.

From time to time our website may provide links to websites which are created by individuals and companies outside of our company. We do this if the site is relevant to the topic you're reading about. Whilst we always try to check that the content of these sites is suitable, we cannot take any responsibility for the practices of the companies who publish the sites that we link to, or the accuracy or relevance of the content on them.

Storage of Personal Identifiable Information on removable media storage, personal devices or public cloud applications (including Google Drive, but not limited too) is encrypted to AES-128 / RSA-2048-bit keys or higher. The disposal of any printed documents is securely discarded.

3. Using your Information

We only use your personal information when we need to contact you or perform our contract with you.

4. Data Storage

Data at Rest is encrypted using algorithms AES-128 or above and stored off-line. Routine backups are performed and stored off-line/cold, using AES-128 or above encryption.

The criteria used to determine the period of storage of personal data is the respective statutory retention period. After expiration of that period, the corresponding data is routinely deleted, as long as it is no longer necessary for the fulfillment of the contract or the initiation of a contract.

5. Website Cookies

Our Website uses Cookies to enhance your user experience. Web browsers drop cookies for record-keeping purposes and sometimes to track information about them. Users may choose to set their web browser to refuse cookies, or to alert you when cookies are being sent. If they do so, note that some parts of the Website may not function properly.

Overall, Cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A Cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

6. Changes to our Policy

We will post any privacy policy changes to this page/URL. If the changes are significant, we will provide a more prominent notice by sending email notifications with updates.

7. Acceptance

By using this Website or Engaging in our Services, you signify your acceptance of this Privacy Policy.

The continued use of our Website or Services following the posting of changes to this Policy will be deemed your acceptance of those changes.
